

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Mrs. Warner Lewis Fleming has issued invitations for the marriage of her daughter, Conway Christian, to Leslie Albert Weary, the ceremony to take place on the evening of Wednesday, April 24, at half-after 8 o'clock, in the Church of the Covenant. Miss Christian is one of the most popular members of the younger society set here, and made her debut at a handsome cotillion given in the Masonic Temple two seasons ago. Her wedding, which is to be one of the fashionable church functions of the spring season in Richmond, will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's mother, 809 West Grace Street.

After a wedding journey, Mr. Weary and his bride will make their home in Highland, Mich., where they will go about September 1.

Visiting Here.

Mrs. F. C. Agnew, of Beaver, Pa., is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Herbert Mann, at 516 Park Avenue, for a stay of several weeks. Mrs. Agnew has been in the South for an extended visit, since spending Christmas in this city.

Reception at the Mansion.

Governor and Mrs. William Hodges Mann will receive the delegates to the annual conference of the Young Women's Christian Association this afternoon. The delegates will be received in the Executive Mansion at 4 o'clock and no invitations have been issued. An orchestra will play during receiving hours, and the mansion will be decorated in vases of American Beauty roses.

Prominent Wedding.

At the Washington Post of yesterday:

"A beautiful wedding was solemnized Wednesday night in the Epiphany Church, when Miss Claire Claxton, daughter of B. P. Claxton, Commissioner of Education, was married to Dale Redmond Mayo, Jr., of Knoxville, Tenn."

"The ceremony was performed by the pastor, the Rev. Randolph McKim, in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. The church was decorated with palms and Easter lilies, and the church organist and choir gave the wedding music. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white broadcloth satin, draped in old lace, caught with clusters of orange blossoms. She carried a full veil and a bouquet of lilies of the valley. Her ornaments consisted of a string of pearls and a pearl brooch."

"Mrs. Max Payne, of Gainesborough, N. C., was the matron of honor. Her gown was of pale pink champagne draped in lace, and she carried a bouquet of Killarney roses. Miss Rebecca Claxton, of North Carolina, who was the maid of honor, wore a similar gown of pale pink satin, and carried Killarney roses."

"Miss Laura Mayo, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid, and wore a gown of soft white satin and lace, and carried white Killarney roses."

"The bride's two young sisters, Miss Helen and Miss Elizabeth Claxton, wore flower girls, and wore dainty gowns of pink accordion-pleated chiffon, and carried baskets of pink roses."

"Warren Converse, of Tennessee, was the best man, and the ushers were Representative Small, of North Carolina; Representative Joseph E. Byrne, of Tennessee; Professor Mitchell Carroll, Dr. Gilmer Brenner, Ashton Emery, of Tennessee, and Max Payne, of North Carolina."

"Following the ceremony at the church there was a small reception at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Claxton, in Commerce Avenue, to which only the out-of-town guests and the most intimate friends were invited."

"The house was decorated with pink roses and lilies."

"The bride wore a gown of white satin veiled in lace."

"Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Mayo left Washington for a wedding trip, before going to their home at Knoxville. Mrs. Mayo traveled in a smart suit of blue serge, with which she wore a gray and blue hat."

Miss Hutzler Engaged.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Hutzler, formerly of this city, but now residing in Baltimore, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Iuz Hutzler, to J. Harry Myers, of Baltimore. No date has as yet been announced for the wedding."

Mrs. Hutzler and her daughter were in Richmond during the early part of the winter and spent some time at the Jefferson Hotel during their visit here."

Hostess for "Angels in Art."

A number of charming box parties have been planned for the first performance of "Angels in Art" which will be presented at the Academy of Music on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings for the Sheltering Arms Free Hospital. Some of those who will entertain parties for this event will be Miss Edie French, Miss Frances B. Scott and Mrs. John Stewart Bryan. Miss Edie French has also taken a box for the second performance on Wednesday evening."

"The production of 'Angels in Art' by society people for local charities in Baltimore and Philadelphia has been the occasion for some very brilliant and noted gatherings of prominent people, given as it is under the personal supervision of Mrs. Henry Wood, of Baltimore, one of the most prominent society women in that city, and her sister, Baroness J. M. von Kretschmar, of Potsdam."

For Mrs. Wadley.

Mrs. W. W. Bosley, of Roanoke, entertained at her home in that city on Tuesday afternoon complimentary to her sister, Mrs. Everett Wadley, of Richmond, who is her guest for some time. It was a very informal affair and those present included only a few of the intimate friends of the hostess."

Miss Williams Entertains.

On Thursday evening of last week, Miss Annie Williams, of Arvon, entertained a number of her friends very attractively at her home there. Those present included Dr. and Mrs. Randolph, Miss May Wood, Miss Minnie Pierce, William Williams, Arthur Norton, Alex. Williams, Hunter Duvall and T. C. Williams."

Benefit Performances.

An interesting musical event of this evening will be the entertainment given by the Woman's Club of Ginter Park for the Fine Camp in the Ginter Park auditorium. Mrs. Norman Call is directing the musical, and the following program will be rendered:

Mrs. Willie Reinhardt, soprano; Mrs. D. H. Henshaw, violinist; Mrs. Louis Barker, pianist; Mrs. Norman Call, baritone; Mrs. Norman Call, accompanist.

PROGRAM.

"Moonlight Sonata," Beethoven

Miss Barker.

"Symphony in F major," Beethoven

Mrs. Reinhardt.

"Balade," Chopin, Miss Reinhardt.

"Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes," English

"Thou'rt Like Unto a Flower," Liszt

"Ich lieben dich," Grig

Norman Call.

Rhapsodie Hongroise, No. 6, Liszt

Miss Barker.

"My Heavenly Beloved," Condon

"Somewhere a Voice is Calling," Tate

"A Birthday," Woodman

Mrs. Reinhardt.

"Wild Rose," McDowell-Hartman

"Twilight," Massenet

Mrs. Reinhardt.

Prologue from "Tosca," Leoncavallo

Norman Call.

"Crucifix," Faure.

Mrs. Reinhardt, Norman Call.

Another affair for charity is the play, "The Little Pilgrim and the Book Beloved," which will be presented to-night and to-morrow afternoon under the direction of all of the junior auxiliary of the Episcopal Church in Richmond. This play will be given in St. Andrew's Hall at 8 o'clock to-night and at 2 to-morrow afternoon.

Important Meetings.

There will be an important meeting this morning at 11 o'clock in room 630 at the Jefferson Hotel in the interest of a Klimes to be given here next fall. This affair is to be presented jointly by those interested in the Association of Charities and the Confederate Museum. All interested in this affair are urged to attend the meeting this morning.

The Silver Cross Circle of King's Daughters will hold its regular monthly meeting at the Sheltering Arms Free Hospital this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Each member of the circle is asked to bring some piece of china, entertained in Savannah.

Miss Constance Stephenson, of Warm Springs, who has recently visited in Richmond, is being much entertained

700 Pairs $1 At Pure Silk
Hose 79c

This shipment of 60 dozen fine Silk Hose were to have been sold at $1.00, but we found our Hosiery Department overstocked, so they go on sale at once, at 79c; made with lisle lined, high spliced heel and double sole, in white, tan and black.

Kaufmann & Co.
The Store of To-Day and To-Morrow

the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Claxton, in Commerce Avenue, to which only the out-of-town guests and the most intimate friends were invited.

"The house was decorated with pink roses and lilies."

"The bride wore a gown of white satin veiled in lace."

"Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Mayo left Washington for a wedding trip, before going to their home at Knoxville. Mrs. Mayo traveled in a smart suit of blue serge, with which she wore a gray and blue hat."

Miss Hutzler Engaged.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Hutzler, formerly of this city, but now residing in Baltimore, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Iuz Hutzler, to J. Harry Myers, of Baltimore. No date has as yet been announced for the wedding."

Mrs. Hutzler and her daughter were in Richmond during the early part of the winter and spent some time at the Jefferson Hotel during their visit here."

Hostess for "Angels in Art."

A number of charming box parties have been planned for the first performance of "Angels in Art" which will be presented at the Academy of Music on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings for the Sheltering Arms Free Hospital. Some of those who will entertain parties for this event will be Miss Edie French, Miss Frances B. Scott and Mrs. John Stewart Bryan. Miss Edie French has also taken a box for the second performance on Wednesday evening."

"The production of 'Angels in Art' by society people for local charities in Baltimore and Philadelphia has been the occasion for some very brilliant and noted gatherings of prominent people, given as it is under the personal supervision of Mrs. Henry Wood, of Baltimore, one of the most prominent society women in that city, and her sister, Baroness J. M. von Kretschmar, of Potsdam."

For Mrs. Wadley.

Mrs. W. W. Bosley, of Roanoke, entertained at her home in that city on Tuesday afternoon complimentary to her sister, Mrs. Everett Wadley, of Richmond, who is her guest for some time. It was a very informal affair and those present included only a few of the intimate friends of the hostess."

Miss Williams Entertains.

On Thursday evening of last week, Miss Annie Williams, of Arvon, entertained a number of her friends very attractively at her home there. Those present included Dr. and Mrs. Randolph, Miss May Wood, Miss Minnie Pierce, William Williams, Arthur Norton, Alex. Williams, Hunter Duvall and T. C. Williams."

Benefit Performances.

An interesting musical event of this evening will be the entertainment given by the Woman's Club of Ginter Park for the Fine Camp in the Ginter Park auditorium. Mrs. Norman Call is directing the musical, and the following program will be rendered:

Mrs. Willie Reinhardt, soprano; Mrs. D. H. Henshaw, violinist; Mrs. Louis Barker, pianist; Mrs. Norman Call, baritone; Mrs. Norman Call, accompanist.

PROGRAM.

"Moonlight Sonata," Beethoven

Miss Barker.

"Symphony in F major," Beethoven

Mrs. Reinhardt.

"Balade," Chopin, Miss Reinhardt.

"Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes," English

"Thou'rt Like Unto a Flower," Liszt

"Ich lieben dich," Grig

Norman Call.

Rhapsodie Hongroise, No. 6, Liszt

Miss Barker.

"My Heavenly Beloved," Condon

"Somewhere a Voice is Calling," Tate

"A Birthday," Woodman

Mrs. Reinhardt.

"Wild Rose," McDowell-Hartman

"Twilight," Massenet

Mrs. Reinhardt.

Prologue from "Tosca," Leoncavallo

Norman Call.

"Crucifix," Faure.

Mrs. Reinhardt, Norman Call.

Another affair for charity is the play, "The Little Pilgrim and the Book Beloved," which will be presented to-night and to-morrow afternoon under the direction of all of the junior auxiliary of the Episcopal Church in Richmond. This play will be given in St. Andrew's Hall at 8 o'clock to-night and at 2 to-morrow afternoon.

Important Meetings.

There will be an important meeting this morning at 11 o'clock in room 630 at the Jefferson Hotel in the interest of a Klimes to be given here next fall. This affair is to be presented jointly by those interested in the Association of Charities and the Confederate Museum. All interested in this affair are urged to attend the meeting this morning.

The Silver Cross Circle of King's Daughters will hold its regular monthly meeting at the Sheltering Arms Free Hospital this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Each member of the circle is asked to bring some piece of china, entertained in Savannah.

Miss Constance Stephenson, of Warm Springs, who has recently visited in Richmond, is being much entertained in Savannah, Ga., where she has gone to be the guest of Miss Ella Claire Catta. Miss Stephenson was guest of honor on Tuesday evening at a box party given by E. O. Perry to witness "The Cottage in the Air." Mr. Perry's guests included Miss Stephenson, Miss Ella Claire and Ernestine Catta, Nell Carington, of Virginia; Walter Douglas, Samuel Halle and Edwin Carson. After the theatre Mr. Perry gave a supper at the Rathskeller.

Shepard-Burke.

A pretty wedding was celebrated on Wednesday evening at 6:30 o'clock, when Miss Loula Agnes Burke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Burke, was married to Hite Poterfield Shepard, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Shepard, of Clifton Forge. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, 1112 North Twenty-third Street. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit with hat and gloves of the same shade, a corsage bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. Miss Edna Shepard, sister of the groom, was maid of honor, and wore a gown of pink champagne and carried pink roses. The groom was attended by Miss Grace Reynolds and Elizabeth Ridgeway. The attendants were presented with brooches engraved with the date of the wedding by the bride and groom. A number of out-of-town guests were present.

In and Out of Town.

Miss Bessie Grammar, of Sweet Briar, is spending a week with Mrs. Howard Tighman in this city.

Miss Nell Sutton, of Ginter Park, has gone to Baltimore, where she is a guest of Miss Ethel Fehsenfeld, at the Homewood.

Miss Marie Thompson Davis, author of "The Meeting of the Waters," and guest of friends in Richmond for a few days next week.

Mrs. W. Barnum, of Newport News, is visiting friends in this city for a short time.

Madeline Shauer, of Lynchburg, is spending this week in Richmond, where she is visiting friends.

Maude Berry, who has been here for some time past, left Wednesday for Fredericksburg.

Miss Lucy Nelson Talliaferro, of Sweet Briar College, is spending the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Talliaferro, at 305 East Franklin Street.

Miss Edna Lowder has returned to the city, after a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lowder, in Newport News.

Miss Gertrude Taylor, of Berryville, is the guest of relatives in this city.

Mrs. Wythe Davis Bowe, of this city.

in Savannah, Ga., where she has gone to be the guest of Miss Ella Claire Catta. Miss Stephenson was guest of honor on Tuesday evening at a box party given by E. O. Perry to witness "The Cottage in the Air." Mr. Perry's guests included Miss Stephenson, Miss Ella Claire and Ernestine Catta, Nell Carington, of Virginia; Walter Douglas, Samuel Halle and Edwin Carson. After the theatre Mr. Perry gave a supper at the Rathskeller.

Shepard-Burke.

A pretty wedding was celebrated on Wednesday evening at 6:30 o'clock, when Miss Loula Agnes Burke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Burke, was married to Hite Poterfield Shepard, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Shepard, of Clifton Forge. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, 1112 North Twenty-third Street. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit with hat and gloves of the same shade, a corsage bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. Miss Edna Shepard, sister of the groom, was maid of honor, and wore a gown of pink champagne and carried pink roses. The groom was attended by Miss Grace Reynolds and Elizabeth Ridgeway. The attendants were presented with brooches engraved with the date of the wedding by the bride and groom. A number of out-of-town guests were present.

In and Out of Town.

Miss Bessie Grammar, of Sweet Briar, is spending a week with Mrs. Howard Tighman in this city.

Miss Nell Sutton, of Ginter Park, has gone to Baltimore, where she is a guest of Miss Ethel Fehsenfeld, at the Homewood.

Miss Marie Thompson Davis, author of "The Meeting of the Waters," and guest of friends in Richmond for a few days next week.

Mrs. W. Barnum, of Newport News, is visiting friends in this city for a short time.

Madeline Shauer, of Lynchburg, is spending this week in Richmond, where she is visiting friends.

Maude Berry, who has been here for some time past, left Wednesday for Fredericksburg.

Miss Lucy Nelson Talliaferro, of Sweet Briar College, is spending the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Talliaferro, at 305 East Franklin Street.

Miss Edna Lowder has returned to the city, after a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lowder, in Newport News.

Miss Gertrude Taylor, of Berryville, is the guest of relatives in this city.

Mrs. Wythe Davis Bowe, of this city.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Tonic and alterative. Increases strength. Restores healthy functions. No alcohol. Sold for 60 years.

Ask Your Doctor.

J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Wedding Flowers

Should be of "guaranteed freshness." Hammond flowers come direct from our own greenhouses—delivered anywhere in perfect condition and at moderate prices. Get our estimate first. Telephone Madison 630.

HAMMOND

VIRGINIA'S LARGEST FLORIST.

100 East Broad St., Richmond, Va.

The English flat hat, for men and women; tans and gunmetal. Regular $5.00 and $4.00. $3.50 values.

Holzheimer's

Northwest Corner Third and Broad.

DETROIT GAS RANGES, ALASKA REFRIGERATORS, OLD HICKORY FURNITURE, SOLD ONLY BY

JURGENS

REINACH, Inc.

107 E. BROAD STREET

MILLINERY—Women's and Misses' Outer Apparel.

HAVE YOU SEEN THE

New Method Gas Ranges

— AT —

PETTIT & CO.'S?

THE FREED CO.

107 E. BROAD STREET

New Process Gas Ranges

$12.50 and Up.

Jones Bros. & Co., Inc.

1420 E. Main St.

Dreyfus

"Specialists in Apparel for Women."

Broad at Second.

THALHIMER'S

Sale of Men's Shirts

Men's Soft Silk Finished Shirts, with French cuffs, that sold from $1.25 to $2.00; sale price, $1.00.

Men's 75c and $1.00 Percalé Shirts, in neat stripes and figures; sale price, 59c.

Men's Oxford Shirts, with soft separate collar, $1.25 value; sale price, 67c.

is visiting her mother, Mrs. P. D. Gilman, in Charlottesville.

Miss Dora Taylor has returned from New York, where she has been staying with friends for some time past.

Mrs. Charles Guy Mitchell and her son are visiting relatives in New York and New Jersey.

Paul Schall, of "Pleasant Oak," Powhatan County, has sufficiently recovered from his recent operation at the Johns Hopkins Hospital to return to his studies at Rock Hill College, Lillcoit City, Md.

V. Keebler and daughter, Miss Branch Keebler, who have spent the winter in Richmond with Judge and Mrs. William F. Rhea, left last night for their home in Boston, Va. Mrs. Rhea is a daughter of Mr. Keebler.

Griffin-Lewis.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Culpeper, Va., April 10.—An event of interest was the marriage of Miss Martha Withers Griffin, the daughter of Mrs. Mary Frances and the late Samuel Griffin, to John Merry Lewis, which was solemnized in New Salem Baptist Church at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, the pastor of the church, Rev. Stockton Cole, officiating. The color scheme of the decorations was yellow and white, masses of jonquils and sprays of white bridal wreaths being used most effectively with festoons of running pine. Miss Gertrude Durant presided at the organ and rendered the wedding marches. The bride entered the church with her eldest brother, John Griffin, who gave her in marriage. She was attractively gowned in a dark blue going-away suit, with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of white roses. Preceding her was her maid of honor and only attendant, her sister, Miss Geraldine Griffin, of Richmond. The bride wore a gown of soft white silk, veiled in chiffon, and carried an arm bouquet of Killarney roses. Dr. Clyde Lewis, of Culpeper, was his brother's best man, and the four ushers were Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Griffin, brothers of the bride; Enoch Lewis and Russell Yowell, all of Culpeper County. Preceding the ceremony there was a luncheon at the home of the bride to the members of the two families and the wedding party, and after the ceremony the newly-married couple came to Culpeper, where they left on the evening train for a Northern wedding tour. On their return they will make their home in Culpeper, where the groom is a prominent business man. Among the guests from a distance were the bride's sister, Mrs. Jennie Hatcher, of London, and Miss Myra Griffin, of Missouri.

Ballard-Chiff.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Fredricksburg, Va., April 10.—C. Ballard, Jr., and Miss Edie Bates Chiff were married here to-day at the residence of Rev. Dr. Edwards, who performed the ceremony. The couple will reside in King George County.

Filippo-Mastin.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Fredricksburg, Va., April 10.—Jos. Filippo and Mrs. Susie Mastin, both of Spotsylvania County, were married here to-day at the church rectory. Rev. Father Joseph M. Perrig officiating.

Assailant of Mrs. Nance Sentenced to Electrocution on June 6.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Roanoke, Va., April 10.—Owen Goggin, the negro who a few days ago criminally attacked Mrs. Raz Nance, a white woman, at her home four or five miles north of Bedford City, must pay the penalty of his crime with his life in the electric chair at Richmond, on Friday, June 6. This is the verdict of the jury and the sentence of the court at Bedford, rendered at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon.

The court convened this morning at 10 o'clock with Judge Walter R. Staples, of Roanoke, presiding. Judge Campbell is ill, and for that reason was unable to preside.

The following jury heard the evidence in the case: William E. Mitchell, E. D. Carter, Charles Dickerson, Harvey Kinsey, W. T. Fizer, H. Lee Chilton, W. A. Sany, George W. Thomas, E.